

Support for Heat-Related Health Policies by Political Party

"Do you support or oppose the following policies?"

Federal, State, and Local Governments should invest resources to ensure that hospitals can run safely and effectively in severe heat waves

State and local governments should provide air-conditioned public spaces for people to use during severe heat waves to prevent heat-related health issues

Percentage Support

Control Episode Heat-Wave Episode